"Scout work IS Church work!"

"Scouting IS the activity arm of the Aaronic Priesthood."

"A Scout's first duty is to God."

"Let me affirm that the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints has not diminished in any way its support of the Scouting movement."

"Scouting is no longer on trial. It is an economically, socially, and spiritually sound program. It builds men of character and spirituality, and trains them for citizenship and leadership responsibility. . . . It is an inspired program for a demanding time. This is that time!"

"I love the Scouting movement. The promise of the Scout Oath and the twelve points of the Scout Law point young men along the path of being prepared for the 21st century. They provide a solid and powerful magnetic force toward development of a well-rounded and noteworthy character that counts."

"Show me a poorly uniformed Troop and I will show you a poorly uniformed leader."

"I commend you leaders of boys, for you demonstrate by your lives that the greatest gift a man can give a boy is his 'willingness to share a part of his life with him.'"

"Scouting is an excellent program which develops character in young men. It has been my observation that those who attain the rank of Eagle are generally more successful in other pursuits throughout their lives. I am grateful for the influence of Scouting in my life and in the lives of my sons and grandsons."

"When you want something done, 'Don't do it yourself' is a good motto for Scoutmasters."

"It is one of the choicest experiences in my life to serve in and participate in Scouting, which I have done for almost seventy years"

"Success in training boys depends largely on the Scoutmaster's own personal example."

"Scouters, through the Scout program, can go out and reach boys that cannot be reached otherwise."

"You cannot divorce Church work from Scouting. When you are building Scouting in your boys, you are building the work of God and helping to establish the kingdom on the earth."

"When a boy finds someone who takes and interest in him, he responds and follows"

"There are four things that are absolutely essential in a great Scout leader. I call them the four T's:
1. Testimony—that they have a testimony of the Lord Jesus Christ, His Atonement, and that this Church is God's Church.
2. Trained—they need to be trained, not only by the Church, but as well by Boy Scouts of America within the districts and council.
3. Time—they need to have time to be a leader of boys.
4. Tenure—short tenure if they don't enjoy the work and are not willing to put in the time necessary, and long tenure if they love the young men and want to serve them with all their hearts and souls."

"The Scoutmaster teaches boys to play the game by doing so himself."

"The bishop's most positive impact on youth comes in informal settings, activities, Scouting, service projects, athletics—real-life settings where they get to know him as a man. . . ."
